

Angel in the Wings

When your typical caregiver needs to take time off, Visiting Angels will use the same amount of consideration and attention to match your needs with an Angel in the Wings. This hand-selected, stand-in Angel will be knowledgeable about your circumstances and will anticipate your needs and routine.

Visiting Angels customers love our Angels in the Wings program because it gives them peace of mind that their quality of care will continue.

Call us today to learn more:

Each agency is independently owned and operated

